Logging Equipment Operator – Columbia Falls, Montana

F.H. Stoltze Land & Lumber Company is seeking a logging equipment operator to join our mechanized logging crew in Columbia Falls, MT. Stoltze is the oldest family-owned sawmill and forest management company in Montana. Stoltze is dedicated to active stewardship of our forest resources and production of high-quality wood products. The Logging Equipment Operator position is a full-time hourly position. Stoltze offers a competitive compensation and benefits package with wage ranging between $21.76 - $25.89 depending on experience.

Position Description:

As a Logging Equipment Operator for Stoltze you will be tasked with helping our company logging crew maximize production, efficiency, and safety to produce logs for our mill. Our crew has the opportunity to work on Company Lands, Private Timberlands, Forest Service, MT DNRC, and GNA Timber sales. Employees are exposed to a broad spectrum of forest and land management activities across northwestern Montana, calling upon all aspects of your professional experience. Opportunities for professional and personal growth abound within the position.

Responsibilities could include Falling, Skidding, Processing, or Loading of logs to ensure a sustainable supply of fiber to our mill. We cross-train our employees on each piece of equipment to add versatility and value to each employee's portfolio. We also expect employees to strive to continually enhance their skills on different pieces of equipment and knowledge of forestry as they progress with our company.

You will be required to work closely with other Forestry department personnel, private landowners, government officials, private contractors and the general public. This position reports directly to the Logging Foreman.

Education and Experience:

A High School Diploma or GED is preferred. Preference will be given to those individuals with five years or greater of professional logging equipment operation. Strong communication and interpersonal skills required. Must have or be able to acquire a valid Montana Driver's License. Stoltze is an equal opportunity employer with a zero-tolerance drug policy.

Application Process: DEADLINE September 1, 2023.
